

Luu_tarea6

I. español estándar, un eufemismo y una palabra vulgar.

1. old (older than 70)
 - mayor, anciano, viejo
2. fat
 - gordo, obeso, cerdo
3. short
 - corto, pequeño, chaparro
4. talkative
 - hablador, locuaz, parlanchín
5. moody
 - malhumorado, el humor muy variable, caprichoso
6. shallow (when applied to people)
 - superficial, poco profundo, frívolo

II. Traduce

1. A: Carlos was shattered, when he saw bad grade on his test.
B: The problem is that he didn't even know about the topic, and in addition, he didn't study anything.
A: That's true. We shouldn't beat around the bush: We have to tell him to study.
B: And did you see the clothing that he's wearing now? I believe that he is out of his mind.
A: Well, the clothing is another matter. He is young; let's leave him for what he wants.
B: Agree, but he can't fool with his academic.
2. A: Oh, I can't remember the name of that actress, but I have it on the tip of my tongue
B: Stop racking your brain, woman, come and sit down.

III. Crédito extra

1. Yo sabía que ese tipo era un caradura. Le ha pintado un semejante violín a Carla. ¿Sabes que hace un año que está comprometido con otra?
 - I knew that this guy was a sassy person. He was making such a rude sign to Carla. Do you know that a year ago that he is compromised to other?
2. No te ofendas por las cosas que dice Ricardo. Es pura chacota. No tiene malas intenciones.
 - What Ricardo said is not offending you. It's just a joke. There is no bad intention in it.
3. Basta de hablarle así a tu madre. Te pasaste de la raya. Eres un irrespetuoso.
 - Enough with that talk to your mother. You've gone too far. You are disrespectful.
4. Ayer me llevé un flor de chasco. Me vendieron este suéter por $20 y en Target lo encontré por $6.
 - I was disappointed on yesterday. They sold me this jacket for $20 and I found this for $6 at Target.